

Dr. Norma Lange-Tagaza, MSW

Dr. Lange-Tagaza is an independent consultant for human resources, organizational development, executive coaching, executive development and training (various management topics). She is a Certified Trainer for Capacity WORKS (GTZ management topics, Licensed administrator of MBTI (Germany and USA). She is an expert in facilitation and process guide for change initiatives, teambuilding, visioning workshops, and quality management. She has extensive experience in capacity development programs in health and education, including the training of directors and principals of vocational training institutions in Asia and Africa.

Dr. Lange-Tagaza is also an organizational development consultant and executive coach, with university teaching experience at the Pedagogical Institute of Marburg University and the Institute of Public Health, Heidelberg University. She has been traveling a lot as Key Expert on Health and Education Capacity Building, as facilitator; trainer and consultant on curriculum development and performance management programs in India under GT Z in Vietnam, Philippines, Kenya, Cambodia, Tanzania, Pakistan, Thailand and Indonesia.